Mr. Naresh Kumar, Managing Director of Jindal Drilling & Industries Ltd. and President of the Petrotech Society, an international oil & gas conferences and exhibitions organization which formed in January, has been once again unanimously elected as Chairman Oil & Gas Service Division - Confederation of Indian Industry (CII). His foresight and cohesive efforts to assist with the resurgence to the Indian oil & gas services industry played a major role in his re-election. CII is playing a proactive role in India's development process and serves as a reference point for the Indian industry and the international business community. CII has membership of over 96,300 companies and around 336 affiliated associations.
